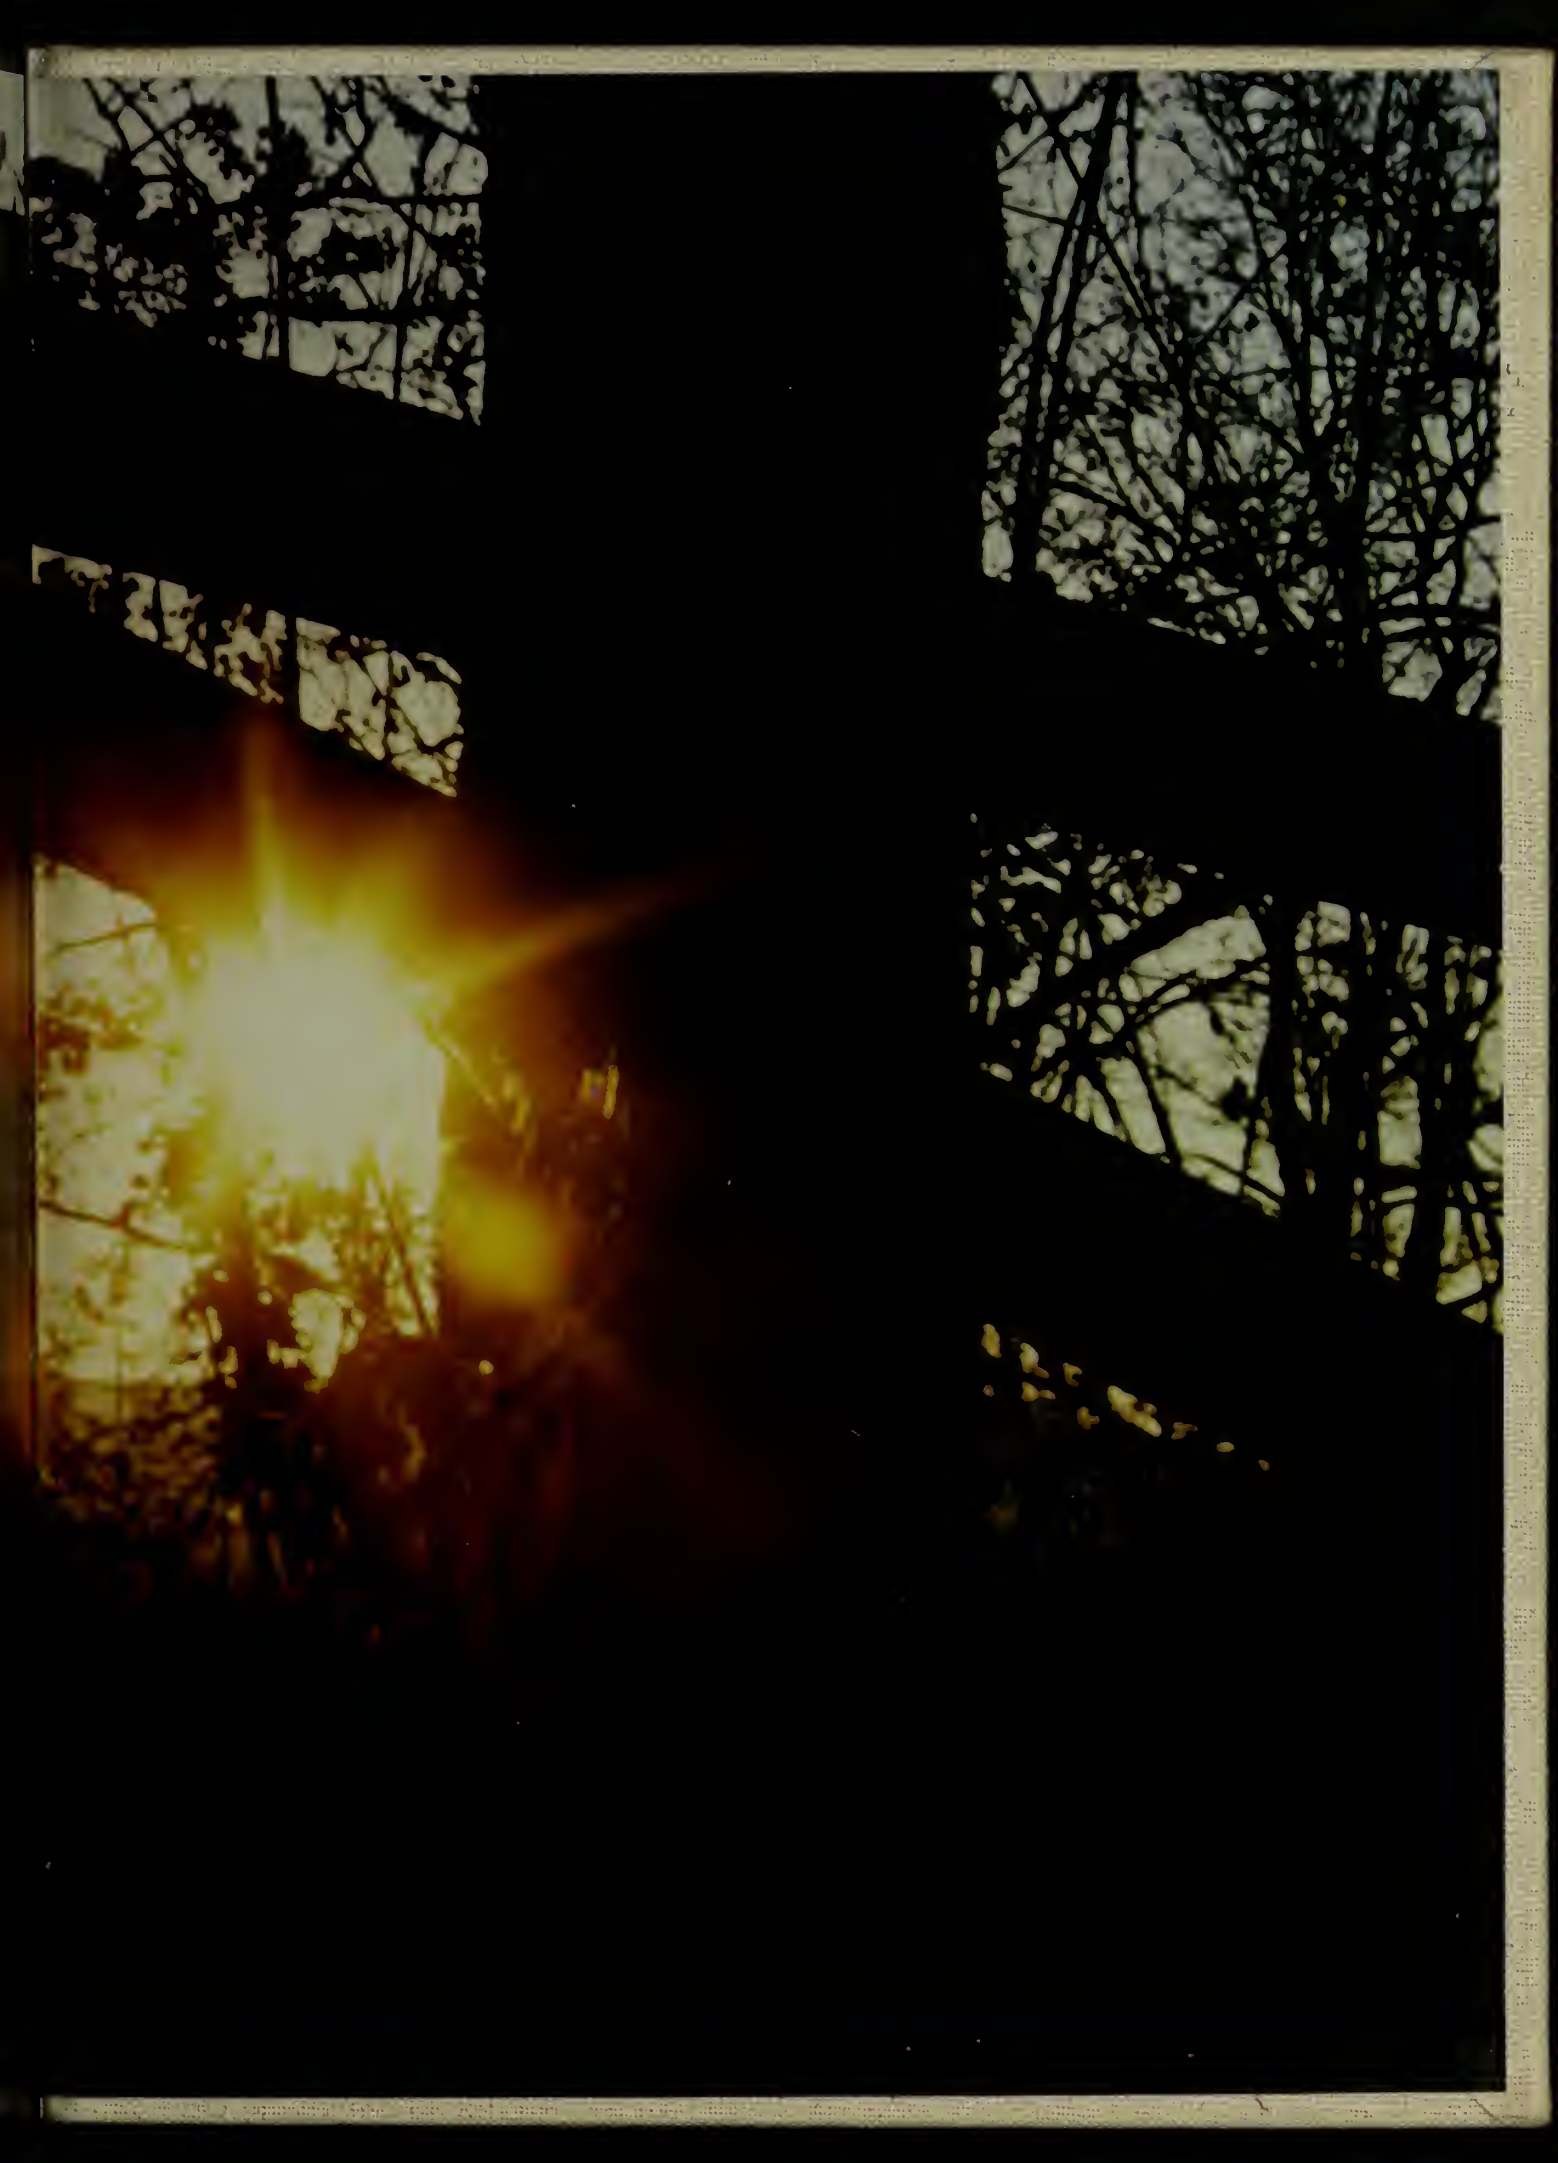
Thoughts of Memories


We need to feel more to understand others.
We need to love and hope to be loved.
We need to cry more of memories we shared.
We laughed, we cried, we enjoyed ourselves.
We need to see more and explore.
We need to listen and hear the needs of others.
We need to share and realize our school days are over,
That we are out in a world.
We need to look more and realize
What to do with our lives,
To create a world where we can peacefully live
A life we choose and make.
School is over, but our lives have just begun.
